THE 1950 CARDINAL

THE STORY OF A SCHOOL YEAR

A Contemporary Tale Told In Pictures

Edited By Barbara Meinhold

Finances Managed By George Hicks

*The Associated Student Body Of Glendale
Union High School, Publishers*

Glendale

May, 1950

Arizona

DEDICATION

*To Mr. Robert
William Ashe*

Mr. Ashe in an informal discussion with Lonnie.

This book is dedicated to the man who entered Glendale Union High School with the seniors who are graduating now. It is dedicated to the man who has been responsible for many changes in the school, all of them forward-moving. It is dedicated to the man who has kept foremost in his thoughts and efforts the welfare of the pupils in his charge, who has created a real democracy where tyranny might well reign, who has earned the respect of every educator in his state, who . . . but, perhaps we weary the reader and embarrass the subject with too long a list of well-deserved praises.

Suffice it to say, then, that because he is liked and respected by his students and faculty for what he is and what he has done, the staff of the 1950 Cardinal proudly dedicates this book to Mr. Robert William Ashe, principal of the Glendale Union High School.

Foreword:

This is a strange type of story—seemingly, it is a story without a plot and yet look closely and you will see that it contains the most intricate and delicate plot of all time: the lives and times of 1000 human beings, all interwoven, each with the others. There are many heroes and heroines in this tale; there are many crises; there is a lovely setting for the story; there are, thank goodness, few villains.

Our Story Opens In The Spring Of 1949 . . .

. . . the time when the faculty and administration and student council put their collective heads together and evolved a calendar of events for the new school year ahead.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Early registration, with Mr. Scott beginning to look tired.

It is on this calendar that our story is based. What did Homecoming look like? Who helped prepare the scenery for the junior play? Who starred in athletics? What's this about a style show? Whom did we hear on Career Day? These things and all things listed in the school calendar are the story we propose to tell . . . the story of Glendale Union High School in the year 1949-50.

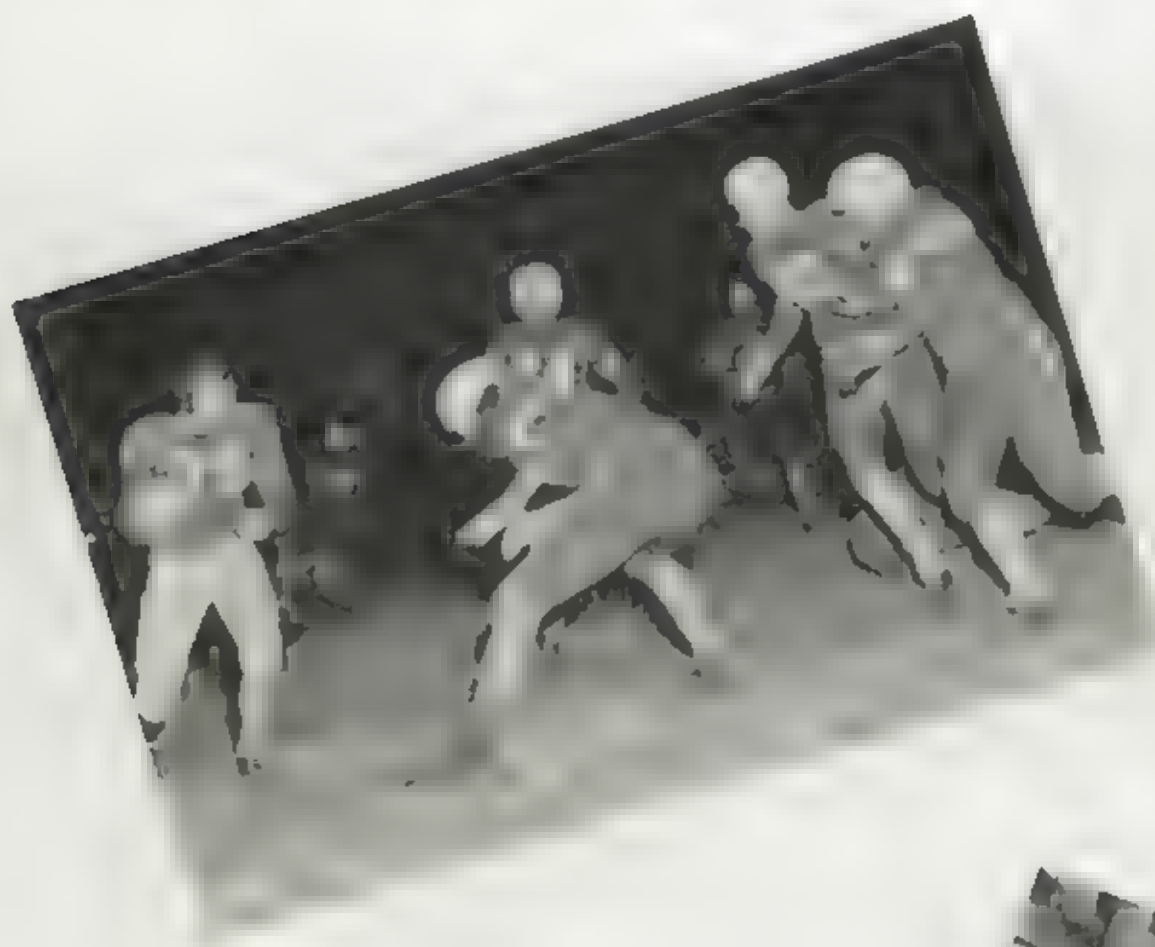

Now Let's Give You Some Background . . .

The first thing I did was to go to the bank and get some money
 out of the safe.
 I had a lot of money in the safe
 and I was very careful of it. I had a lot of money
 and I was very careful of it. I had a lot of money
 and I was very careful of it.

You have your choice of a hundred different plots, all based on the scenes laid out on these two pages. Studies, sports, plays, dances—all of them contain angles which would make fascinating tales within themselves had we the space to outline each separately.

ilar to these—or what you could have done—and
there you have your part.
All of it was fun, wasn't it?
Hearing Jack call the game, drinking the drinks
first, then listening to A.
Davis bark orders from pick-up ten yards out, and on the bus, carrying the players at the end of a swell show. To each of us comes a flood of memories.

ITS HEROES?

The School Board

Real heroes these, serving without pay, receiving as a reward only the inner satisfaction their job affords. Men like these—like Mr. McDonald who retired January 1 after ten years of service to Glendale Union High School — deserve the gratitude of both faculty and students, for whom they try to make GUHS the finest school there is What's Cooking?

An army marches on its stomach—and there's an army of students at Glendale High who find highly nourishing food in the cafeteria at really low prices. What has this to do with the story of a school year? Well, just try studying on an empty stomach!

The Student Council

The Student Council is a group of students who are elected to represent the student body. They are responsible for planning and organizing school activities, and for making recommendations to the school board. The council is made up of students from all grades, and is led by a president.

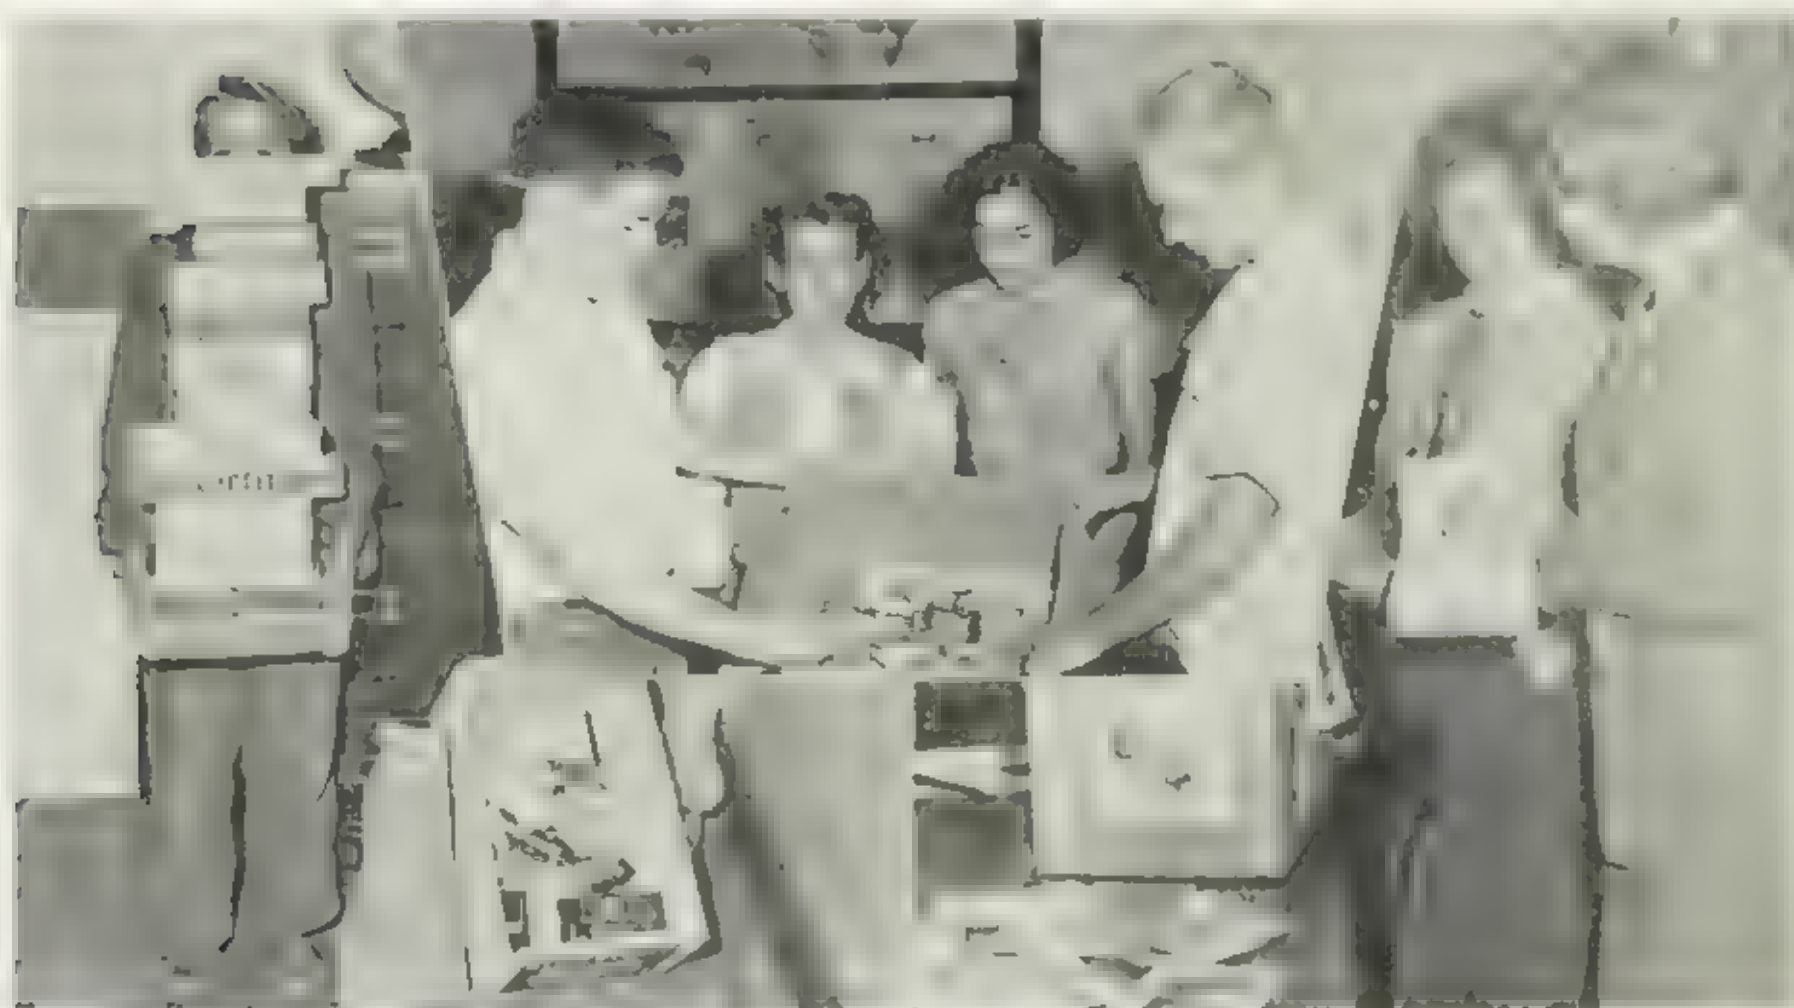

The nicest part of our story that dealing with man's kindness to man. Right, Mrs. Imes, Nancy Edgeworth, and Sally Takesuye sorting clothes donated by students for a family which lost all its possessions in a fire. Below Ken Bean piled up to the eyes with part of the candy for children in France; George Bedlion, Glenna Russell, Mary Lou Priddy and Max Green collecting candy and Jane Roberts and Mrs. Gurdy collecting Christmas cards to be reworked for a charitable project.

The Human Heart Of GUHS

Can a school as a whole have a heart? Of course it can—witness the noble acts, unselfish giving and thoughtful concern put forth by the high school this year, when others less fortunate than we, needed help. These are just a few of many instances.

A Great Day In The Lives
Of The Students Pictured
In These Pages—

The Day We Ran The School

What a day it was! Not a teacher in sight! The principal gone! Mrs. Menard ABSENT! But the students had been told that they were on their honor, that the administration and faculty trusted them. And the students didn't let them down. Classes went on as usual. Charley Nelson ran Mr. Ashe's office. So unusual was the idea, and so good were the results, that the story found its way into the local and Phoenix papers—and the students of GUHS had something to be proud of: Themselves!

Top: Boy, Mr. Menard, Menard, ... Bottom: Teacher, ... enjoys her Latin teaching

The Class Of 1951—Next Year's Big Wheels

Moving along the path of our story quietly, making little noise to attract attention to themselves, but drawing the admiration of school folk who teach them and work with them, these juniors seem destined to be one of the really great classes in the story of years to come. They have the ability, and they have the desire to make good citizens of themselves, in school and out.

And They Have A Swell Group Of Officers!

You couldn't find a more personable bunch of students on any campus than those who lead the class of 1951. Left to right, looking over the class ring, are Harold Lundberg, president; Karen Beck, vice-president; Donna Miller, secretary; and Jim Laughrun, treasurer. The class has a president with whom few people would stand up and argue, and a treasurer with whom it's useless to argue. The two girls are assets to GUHS.

And Now They Ascend To The Top Rung Of The Ladder

What's the story of a play — which itself is part of our story of the year? Well, first you have rehearsal (see upper left picture) as shown by Bill Corbin, Donna Miller, George Bedlion and Beki Sigworth. Then there's the pre-performance moving around of props, as we can see in the other three pictures of Eileen Burns, Charley Roach, Jim Hornbake, and other characters (in the play). Then comes the performance — you can see Anna Gardner and Sherman Belfelt emoting below. At the end of a triumphant performance, Director Ernest Zinser gets a reward from his cast. Simple, isn't it? Ever try producing a play?

"Dear Papa" Junior Play

"Dear Papa", a three-act comedy by Felicia Metcalfe, was presented December 6 and 7. It concerned a family that was temporarily without an income and quite unexpectedly received a large sum of money. Ultimately the money was lost, but they finally regained prosperity.

The cast consisted of Bill Corbin, Eileen Burns, Tommy Alexander, Ketch Trueblood, George Bedlion, Donna Miller, Anna Gardner, Beki Sigworth, Doug Johnson, Dwayne Lee, Sherman Belfelt, Jackie Allen, Geraldine Rosengren, and Wynona White.

Our Story Moves On With A Dramatic Hi-Light

The Sophomores, Class Of '52

What place do the sophomores occupy in our story of the school year? A place of tremendous importance! These are the boys and girls who add life to the school. Just feeling their oats, they begin to take on definite personalities and carve niches for themselves in the general scheme of things at GUHS. Students, playboys, characters—they are a vital part of our tale.

People Who Add Pep To Our Story

They're a respected group of citizens, these soph officers, Don Holley, president, over there on the left, is a well-known athlete and a scholar too. The serious vice-president next to Don is Jerene Maierle. Then here's smiling Helen Tang as secretary; and there on the right, looking like a million dollars is young Bob Crouch, who handles the class funds. Swell people? You bet your life!

LAST OF THE SOPHS

We'd hate to leave these faces out of our record of this year. Since the photographer missed them when he was photographing the other sophomores, we thought we'd pick them up this way. Left to right, they are Bombo Aro, Pat Nash, Glenda McClellan, and Helen Tang.

The Year Takes Toll OF LAND MARKS

The start of the finish of a number of aging trees on the north lawn is pictured here, as students scurry to classes. Slowly rotting, the trees were brought down last fall and young saplings planted to replace them. The year rolled on and so the appearance of the campus changed.

And Now We Pause To Look At All The . . .

happy, anxious, and fearful. A crowd full of thirty persons. Innumerable friends of GCHS. A throng of people of faces made up of their emotions. Gathering at meetings, sports events, plays, dances. Faces of each reveal a different personality.

Anxious!
CHEERFUL!

Typical crowds with their mingled emotions are shown here as part of the drama of our tale. Study them closely, note the different expressions as they watch the events of the year unfold. Upper right: Alumni and townspeople at football game. Center right: Faculty, students, and players at a basketball game. Lower right: Overflow crowd at the faculty-varsity volleyball game. Upper left: Girls' League meeting. Lower left: Basketball game.

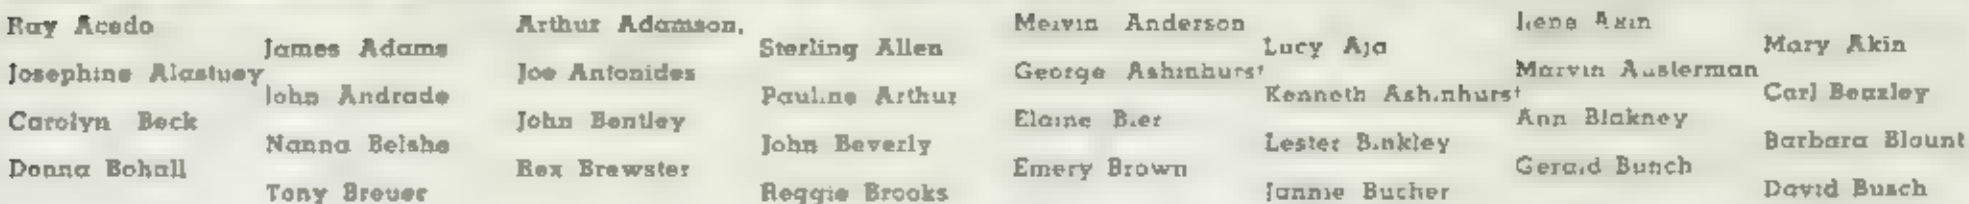

The Freshmen — We Envy Them

What a life! First you get hazed by the sophomores; then you feel as though you own the school. You've made friends and found your place in the sun. You wouldn't swap GUHS for any other school. And, best of all, the story of this year is merely a preface to the wonderful years ahead. No wonder the seniors consider you lucky.

Three More Glorious Years Ahead!

At last, a well-deserved tribute to the advisers of all four classes, men and women who do a thankless job and do it well.

Cecil the Magician — and Philby

Week after week, as the year rolled by, we saw assemblies. Some good, some only fair, all were welcomed as a phase of extra-curricular activities. Those shown on this page include both kinds. Remember them? They, too, tell the story of the school year and of all the fun we had doing, watching and enjoying ourselves.

"Deck the halls with tra-la-la-la"— Christmas rolled 'round (as it has done for a long time now) and a holiday spirit pervaded the air. Mrs. Lale produced a new Christmas pageant, and Mr. Gardner led the chorus in song. Even Mr. Davis loosened up and joined the merriment while he gleefully counted his presents beneath the tree.

The GUHS FFA Club

Under the direction of Mr. Owen W. Allen and Mr. Walter Kish, the Future Farmers of America have had a very successful year.

The requirements for belonging to the club are to have an agriculture project, be taking agriculture or have had it two years. The club motto is:

Learning to Do
Doing to Learn
Earning to Live
Living to Serve

With this in mind, the FFA boys worked in agriculture projects, judging teams, junior fair, field trips, the Harvest Dance and other activities.

And The Homemakers

A club that for many years has had top standing in GUHS is the Future Homemakers of America.

With Meta McAllister as President; Dorothy Schmoker, Vice-president; Linda Gillum, Secretary-Treasurer; Helen Tang, Historian; and the sponsors, Mrs. Hewette and Miss Jenkins, the club has worked under able leadership in whatever it undertook.

The FHA helped with the Veterans Poppy Sale and had a hay-rack ride and corn roast with the Future Farmers. It also sponsored the Harvest Dance where Sherman Biefelt and Karen Beck were crowned king and queen.

The girls in the fashion show

Two events that slipped by easily and pleasantly in the year were the annual fashion shows, put on by both home ec teachers' sewing classes, and the rodeo in which three GUHS girls constituted the court. Peggy Schaefer was queen, and Phyllis Samis and Florence Snail were her attendants. Both fashion show and rodeo had the school in dither for days with frantic scurrying around, costuming, "Please Excuse" lists, and all the attendant wonderful hub-bub.

The GUHS Lettermen

The Letterman's Club, under the sponsorship of Coach Earl Gieseke, has dedicated its organization to sports in Glendale Union High School.

These athletes, who have practiced, worked, and trained, have won the right to wear the "G" which designates them as superior athletes.

The club has sponsored several activities this year, including eliminating illegal wearing of stripes and sweaters, and parties and picnics within the organization.

The officers of the club are Dan Tolmachoff, president; George Mitokawa, vice-president; Joe Trueba, sergeant-at-arms; and Jerry Barker, secretary-treasurer.

Glendale's Hi-Y Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Scott, had one of its most active years in 1949-50. "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character" is the purpose for which the club strives.

Among the many projects the club entered into were the Hi-Y Model Legislature, of which Jack Mitchell was governor, and the City-County Hi-Y Basketball League. They had a controlling force in the County Council as Harold Lundberg was the president.

The Glendale Hi-Y has the largest organization in the state with a membership of 35 boys.

The officers, Anna Gardner, president; Geraldine De Loach, vice-president; Jackie Fine, secretary; and Doris Portenier, treasurer; have worked together toward making girls into better Christians. The Y-Teens sponsored a tea for the faculty and officers of other organizations.

Once every two months, the Inter-Club Council meets at either South Mountain or the YWCA to discuss club problems and current activities.

All the plays presented at GUHS were under the guidance of the club, which is sponsored by Mr. Ernest Zinser. Many of the plays were entirely student productions with the sound systems, stage sets, make up, directing and acting done entirely by the students.

The Girls' League . . .

The Girls League is an organization to which every girl in school is eligible to belong.

The aim of the League is to bring the girls closer together, teach them social graces, and prepare them for future life.

The League, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Harriette Ines, had a very successful year in its various activities, including the student Mixer, Co-Ed Dance, Christmas Formal, Every Girls Banquet, and many charitable events.

The officers for the past year were Beverly Frost, President; Meta McAllister, Vice-President; Glenda Rowland, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Boys' Federation, organized this year for the first time, is an organization of which any boy registered in Glendale High is automatically a member. One of its aims, aside from uniting the boys, is to help needy boys who can't buy books, clothes, or other school necessities.

Under the able leadership of the sponsor, Mr. McAllister, the Boys' Federation played its part in the story of the school year with dances, films, and assemblies.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls Athletic Association was organized to enable girls to earn their letter. A point system was devised for this purpose and points are made in scholarship, team games, membership, individual sports, and sportsmanship.

GAA is sponsored by Mrs. Clyda Jean Martin and governed by a council of representatives elected from each class.

A Halloween party, all girls dance, sports days, and co-recreational sports have been carried out successfully by the club his year.

Setting off the FFA parade for the parade behind a lot of bull. The bull is the possession of, naturally, Square Treguboff.

FFA Junior Fair

The 1950 Junior Fair was held Friday and Saturday, March 10 and 11, under the football stadium. This was the 8th annual fair put on by the FFA Department under the direction of Mr. Owen Allen and Mr. Walter Kish. Business firms from Glendale and Phoenix exhibited farm machinery and donated money to the fund which was used for prize money. Premiums were given for first, second, and, when there was enough competition, for third place, and for Grand Champions in each class. The highlight of the fair was the pig roping contest which was won by Bill Quist.

Parade Around The Stadium

A parade was held at 2 p.m. Friday afternoon on the GUHS track. Boys and girls entered an animal in the parade and led that particular animal. Some entries in the parade were Myron Beck and his Grand Champion Hereford steer, Albert Downard and his Grand Champion bull, and Robert Downard and his Grand Champion Holstein cow. Some of the entrants rode horses in the parade and one boy even led a pig.

Judging The Cattle

Most of the judging was done by amateur judges who were paid nothing for their good deeds. These men did this work on their own time and did a very good job of it. Judges in various classes were: Mr. Fred Chesney, Dairy; Mr. Robert Springfield, Beef, Swine, and Sheep; and Harold Bennet, Poultry and Rabbits. General superintendent of the fair was Myron Beck. Under him were Buddy Baldwin, Dairy; George Payne, Beef; Bill Quist, Horses; Jimmy Estes, Poultry, and Rabbits; and Don Gay, Swine and Goats.

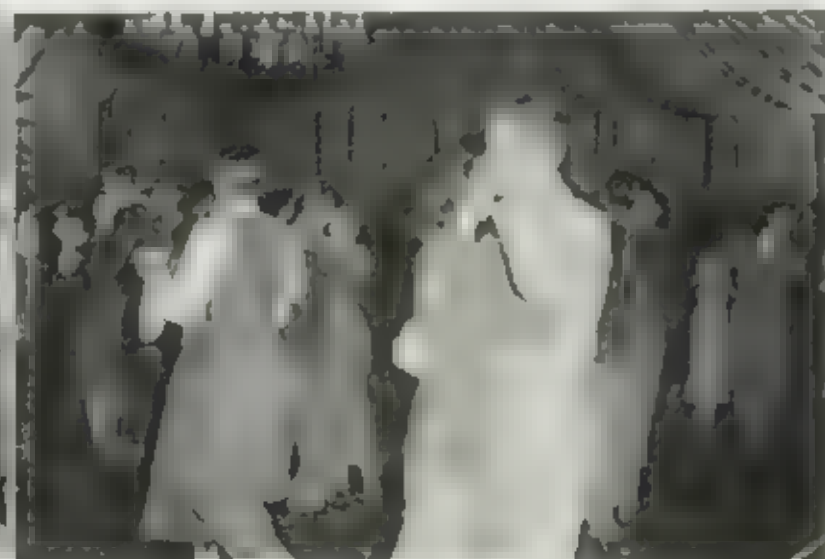

Bert Fireman, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Bice, Mrs. Betts, Mrs. Anna Mae Sexton, Mr. Charlie Pitts, Mr. Robert Crouch, Mrs. Harriette Imes, Mrs. Margaret McGowan and Mr. Ashe.

Memories rushed back in a flood with the more than 300 graduates who returned to GUHS in late November for its second annual Homecoming. The program included open-house all day, a banquet at which Bert Fireman reminisced, a football game, and a dance. The consensus of opinion when it was all over was that Homecoming had been one of the best events of any year. Committee members who planned it all, aided by many faculty members, were Jack Mitchell, Leonard Bice, Mrs. Hazel Betts, Mrs. Anna Mae Sexton, Mr. Charlie Pitts, Mr. Robert Crouch, Mrs. Harriette Imes, Mrs. Margaret McGowan and Mr. Ashe.

Homecoming — 1949

'Boarding-House Reach' Is Colorful, Hilarious Farce

What happens when Wilbur Maxwell opens his home as a boarding-house? It all makes a hilarious comedy, "The Boarding-house Reach," which will be presented on March 14 and 15 in the auditorium.

Briefly, the plot concerns Wilbur's effort to obtain a bicycle.

His parents refuse to give him the money, so the Maxwell home becomes a boarders' paradise. The various characters who traipse through the three acts of humor make for a very interesting evening.

George Bedlion is cast as Wilbur and Bob Oldenburg portrays Hercules Nelson. Clifford Baker and Ernestine Sanders are the parents. Dena Scott and Marilyn Oldenburg are Wilbur's sisters, Betty Lou and Connie, respectively. Ann Blakney is Bernadine.

Leading the list of boarders are Zoe Gocke and Jim Hornbake as Rough-House Ruby and Herman (Ninety Volts) Jones. Ruby is a wrestler and Jones is a punch-drunk prize-fighter. Charles Nickerson is a traveling salesman, Mr. Potter. Limpy McGuire, a thief of long standing, is portrayed by Joshua Galindo, and Beki Sigworth is his wife Nora.

Mrs. Maxwell's Aunt Mary is Jacoba Lundberg. The world's greatest collector of useless information, Lucy, is Eileen Burns. In direct contrast, Anna Gardner, is cast as Mrs. Mott, who says nothing in the entire play. Completing the cast is Milton Henry as the detective, Connally.

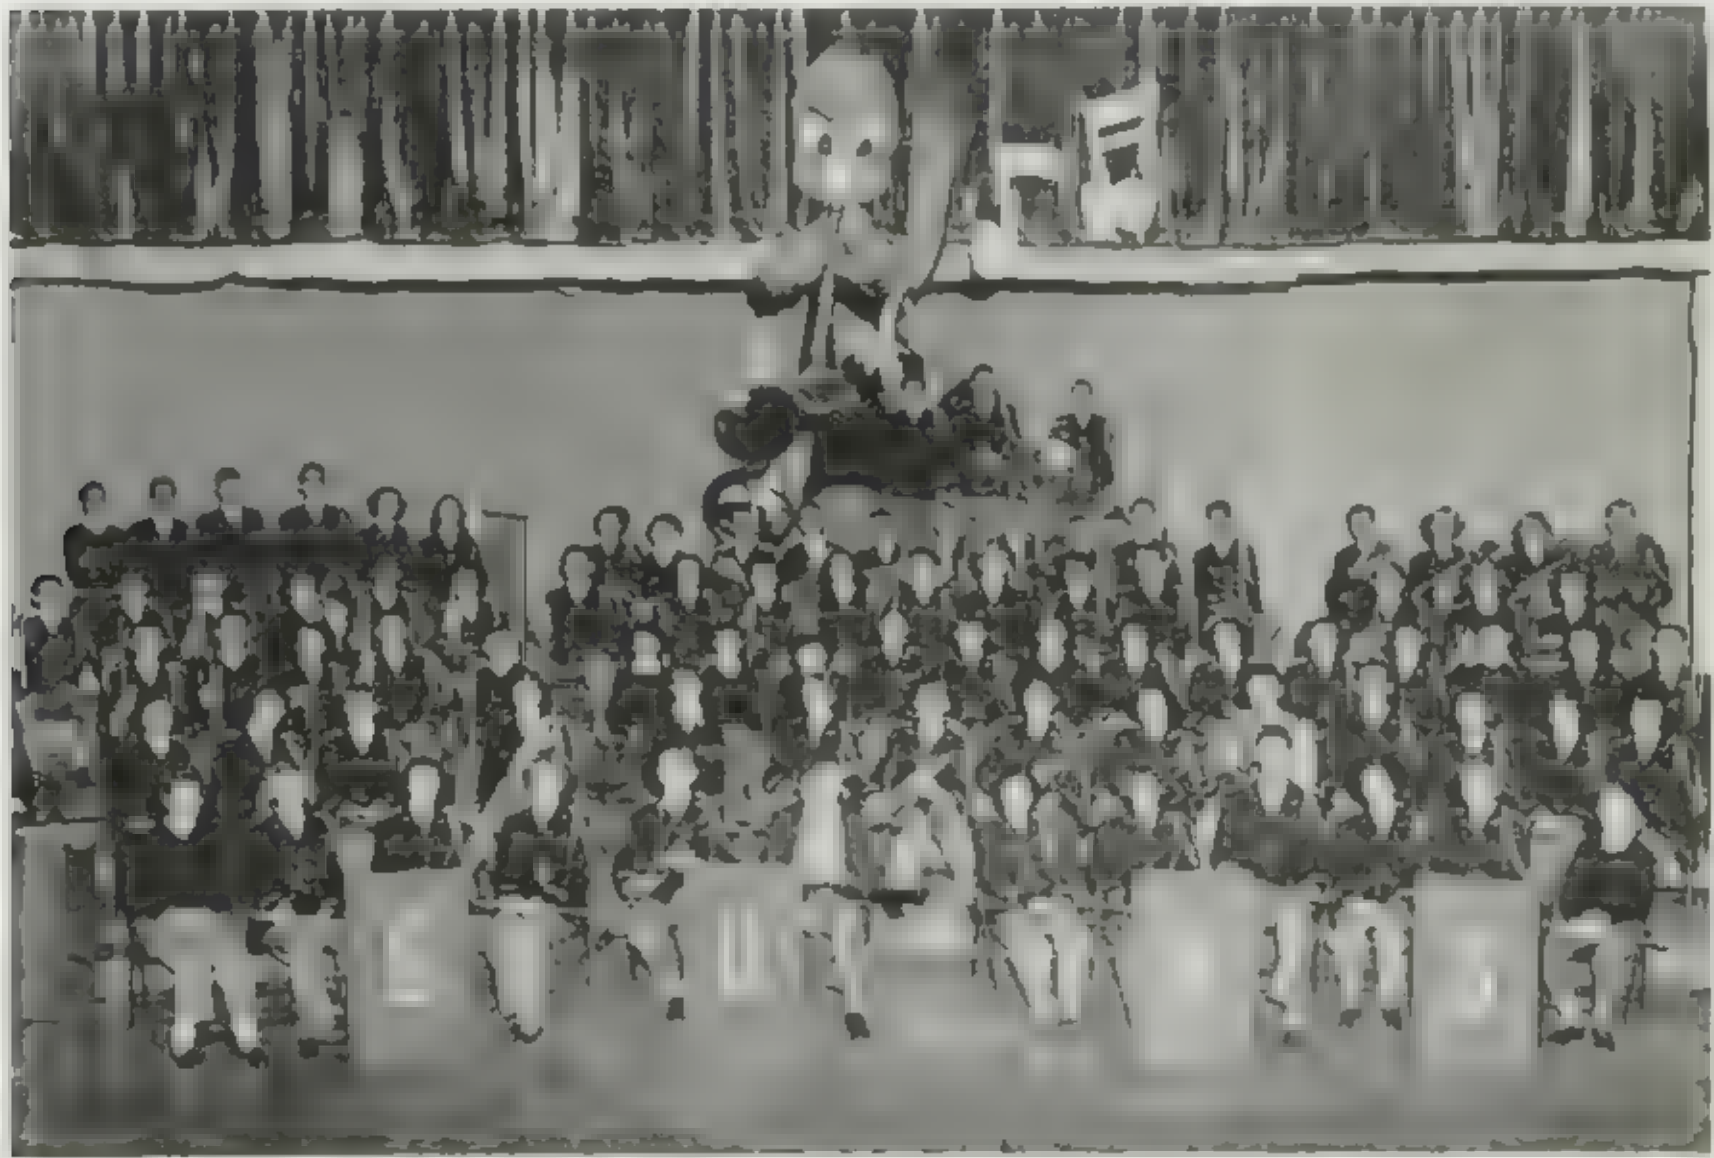

According to Mr. Ernest Zinser, director, this play is even funnier than the junior play. Tickets are now on sale in Mr. Zinser's room and by members of the cast.

That newspaper story up there is the advance publicity on the senior play. And the play lived up to it! In fact, "Reach" was called the best play seen at GUHS in a long time. Shown at the top are several backstage scenes. The lower four pictures are action shots from the play itself.

Chorus Lettermen

For the first time since its start, chorus members received letters, if they met the following requirements: They had to have at least two years of chorus and obtain 30 points according to the rules set up by a special committee. If any person missed more than two performances, he received no more credits.

The Chorus Groups

The Glendale choruses under their new director, Mr. Arthur Gardner, were an important part of the school year. Because of the number of students taking chorus, there were three groups: freshmen, mixed, and advanced. Among other activities a club was organized and for the first time letters were given to members who met the qualifications. The choruses sang at schools all over the valley.

Photography Club . . .

The Photography Club is composed of those in the photography classes and students who are advanced amateur photographers.

The objectives of the club are to sponsor photography and to help photograph the annual.

Pictures were entered by the club members in the National Scholastic Exhibit competition held in Phoenix.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Morton Boss and the officers are Jesse McCabe, president; Phyllis Samis, vice-president; Dorothy McGinnis, secretary; Mary Wiggans, treasurer.

. . . and The Honor Society

The students who belong to the Honor Society were elected to that group by the faculty on the basis of character, leadership, service, and scholarship. Led by Mrs. Davies and Mr. Bice as co-sponsors, the Honor Society is the goal of all students who want true academic recognition. New members this year were honored with a tea and were given gold pins at the annual honor assembly. You have to be "tops" to belong to this group!

A new addition to the story of the school year was the football club under the sponsorship of Mr. Peterson. Anybody in school interested in football belonged, and Mr. Peterson obtained films of athletic events and noted speakers from the athletic world for the members' entertainment.

The Football Club . . .

Stamp Club

Also new to the roster of clubs at GUHS is the Stamp Club, formed by a group of students who felt the need to exchange ideas, interest, and information about the fascinating hobby of stamp-collecting. Formed under the sponsorship of Mrs. Sara Clardy, the Stamp Club started with but five members. In a few years, no doubt, the club will be one of the firm foundations of the extra-curricular program.

. . . and A Happy Play Director

The gentleman grinning so broadly there on the left is Mr. Ernest Zinser who has just seen the curtain fall on the final act of the final night of the senior play. The charming young lady seated there with him is his wife. Displayed proudly in his hand is part of the gift bestowed upon him by the play cast in gratitude for his having put up with more than mortal man should be called upon to bear. Mr. Zinser is given a touch of recognition here because his creative efforts have done quite a lot to make this year a memorable one.

The Cardinal

Well, we're out—and that's that for another year! No more running around after pictures, frantic developing, soliciting ads, burning the midnight oil planning layouts, identifying faces. No more—all done—until next year. It's been a tough job, but we've learned many things. And chief among those things is a sense of responsibility to the school and to ourselves. We hope you like the fruit of our efforts, the 1950 Cardinal, the story of Glendale High in the year 1949-50.

Whether or not Cardinal Hi-Lights won any prizes this year, it's too early to know. But we do know that the students of GUHS are pretty proud of their paper, published this year (except for one issue) by the senior journalism class. Streamlined, newsy, and good-looking, Hi-Lights racked up another year of constructive, sound journalism based on good taste and a sense of proportion.

One of the big events of the year was the annual election of the Cardinal King and Queen and their court. This year Eddie Sine and Beverly Frost won the crowns on the basis of a school-wide student election. The honor was awarded them for popularity, citizenship, extra-curricular participation, and school spirit, not to mention good looks. Elected with them were the four couples shown below, who will make up the court at coronation time.

The Story Of The 1949 Season

Starting the season under a new coach back to his old ways.

The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1.1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1.1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow \infty$. The second part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1.1) as $t \rightarrow 0$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1.1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow 0$.

Gendreau lost its next game this to Anaheim by a 2-0 margin. A trip to Yuma was next and despite the fact three Cardinals were were called back Gendreau still managed a victory.

The Story Behind The Games

You don't just trot eleven men onto a gridiron and start playing a football game. Long before that first whistle blows for the kickoff, the coaches and the players have been out on the practice field building up their bodies and their skills. Hours are spent, day after day, in drill—drill—drill, until there seems to be nothing in life but "pivot, hand-off, block, tackle, hit hard. Hard! Hard!" Added to this is skull practice—practice—more drill, only this time it's a mental practice on plays and what position to fall into. You have to have an intense love of the game, of its body contact and basic skills, in order to stick through an entire season. And then, if you come up against a better opponent, there's the heartbreak of seeing all your efforts seemingly go to waste. But there's one reward: The thrill and satisfaction of knowing you've done your best.

The JV football squad failed to win a game this year, primarily because the varsity needed whatever good material the JV's could possibly spare. Coach Whatley's charges did their utmost, however, and never stopped trying. They may not have won, but the Glendale Union High School was still proud of them.

Junior Varsity And Freshman Teams

Coach Ed Long's charges racked up a splendid football season, winning six games while losing only one and tying one. The boys displayed a know-how that looked good for future varsity squads. Riding rough-shod over most of their opponents, they were deadly on offense and stubborn on defense. The future looks good.

Second row, Emery Brown (mgr.), Denny Harmon, Edon Castleberry, Ray Ayala, Pete Hold, Jim Hampton, Dave Tolmachoff, Tom Ramirez, Louis Gutierrez, Dicko Moreno. Coached this year by Earl Gieseke, Glendale's basketball squad had an impressive season. The boys consistently knocked over all opposition from schools equal in size and they even managed to stage upsets. Keynote of the season was the word THRILL, as the hoopsters many times had to come from behind to win

SHOOT!

Starting slowly while the boys who had played football rounded into shape for basketball, the Cards dropped their first three games to tough opponents — Phoenix Union, North High, and Mesa. From then on the hoopsters were hotter than the proverbial firecracker and took ten games in a row. Highlight of the year was the upset of North Phoenix; and top thriller was the Phoenix Tech game in Phoenix when Sine swished through a desperate shot from near mid-court in the final second and won the game by one point. In several games, much of the action was provided by Coach Gieseke. All in all, it was a great season in conference play. At the state tournament, Glendale breezed past its first opponent, then came up against Tucson — and came down again. The year proved that Glendale could beat any school of its size and do it spectacularly. Coach Gieseke had done his new work well, and his boys had played heads-up ball.

The Jayvees, under coach Long's tutelage, came through with a splendid season, racking up a record of fifteen wins as against six losses. The team looked flashy and formidable all year and gave promise of helping the varsity greatly next year. Coach declined to name outstanding players since all played well.

Junior Varsity And Freshman Hoopsters

Coach Bill Peterson's freshmen scored only four wins for the season while losing seven games, but the boys never stopped trying and several of their losses were by slim heart-breaking margins. The frosh hoopsters learned a lot of ball during the year and should produce some good talent for next year.

FROSH

VARSITY

Coach Crouch's charges started off the season well and by mid-spring were in fifth place in league standings. Unpredictable, the squad had its ups and downs, but a highlight of the year was Roy Patterson's 2-0 shutout of Mesa. Too early to tell how the boys wound up, our story, however, is brightened by the fact that they played as a team and played to the best of their ability.

PLAY BALL!

From the numerous boys on the combined Jayvee and Frosh squads, Coach Bice gradually picked out two squads which, with a little experience, may do fine things for GUHS next year. The boys learned quickly and showed the interest and hustle which are so vital to winning ball games. Our early press time prevents our recording how they fared in season play.

JAYVEES and FRESHMEN

ACTION IN TRACK AND BASEBALL . . .

Top left, newcomer Ray Sorenson blazes one across with a smile. Top right, champion discus man Dan Tolmachoff shows championship form. Center left, ace vaulter David Kenly goes over easily. Center right, clouter Bob Warren up, ready to take his cut at the ball. Lower left, Coach Bob Crouch shows the bunting grip to Frank Scott. Lower right, speedster Leonard Bice moves along with easy stride.

Boys' Varsity

Junior Varsity

Left to right, May Tang, Shirlee Grandee, Carolyn Northcross, Joanne Beaver, Jackie Allen. On the distaff side, there were some real "lookers"—and also some excellent players. As a team, the girls didn't always win, but they staged hard fights.

T - E - N - N - I - S

Girls' Varsity

THE WOMAN'S ANGLE

Coach Clyda Martin, Coach Olga Markichevich

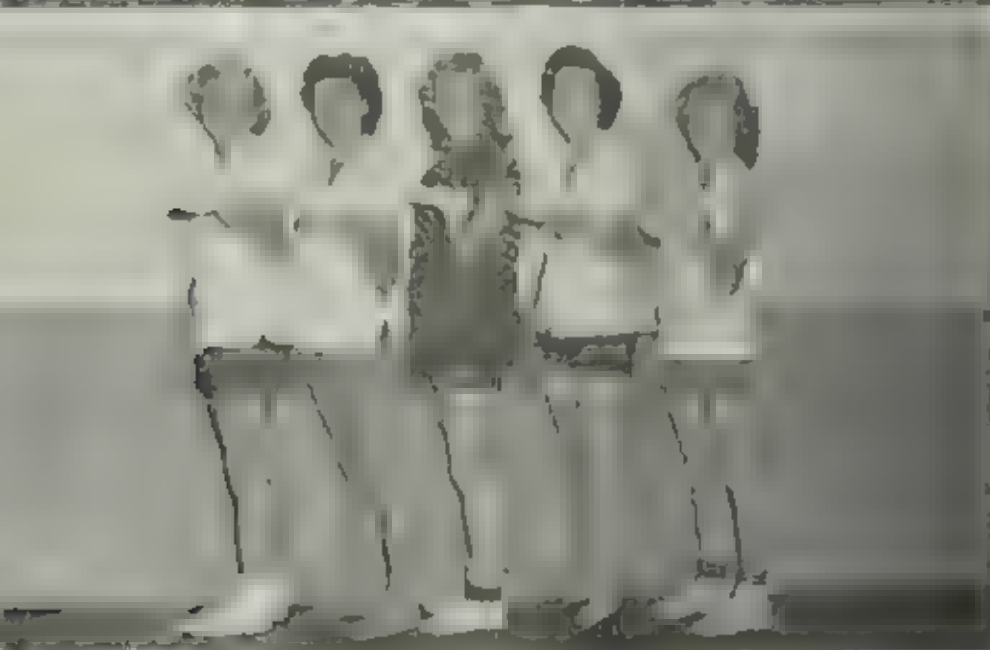

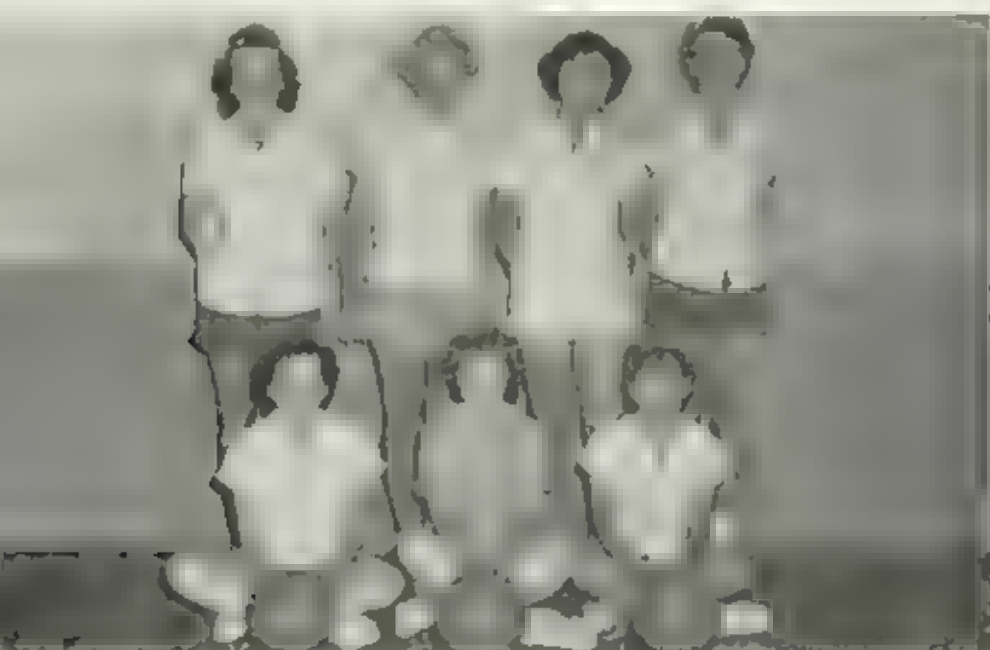

The only difference between the girls' and boys' sports at GUHS is that for some unknown reason the girls don't draw the crowds. And yet there are as many sports on their schedule as are on the boys' — volleyball, tennis, badminton, deck tennis, basketball, ping pong, and softball. Coaches Martin and Markichevich train their charges well, and the girls play hard. If there were any justice in this world, girls' sports would be given the many more pages in this book that they deserve.
